DEDICATION

TO L. W. BURKHOLDER, who has given three years of untiring service to Delta High School and to all the pupils, the senior class of 1938 feels it a privilege to dedicate this annual, the new Panther. As superintendent, Mr. Burkholder holds only the highest achievements as his goal for our school. Included in the achievements are honor, scholarship, athletic activities, various inter-school participations, and good fellowship.

Following such ideals, our school is gradually improving in general morale and in scholarship.

FOREWORD

THE PANTHER desires to record, so far as it can, with picture and pen, those scenes and thoughts that will enable all who participated in them to relive again and again, in memory, the happy days and the high purposes of the high school year.

LIBRARY

Librarian . . . . . MRS. KATHRYN STAEHLING

Though the library serves the public, as well as our school, its facilities are generously adequate to meet the needs of both groups. At the disposal of the students are 131 reference volumes, 2299 non-fiction books and 2540 fiction books. These books are not obsolete editions; but, composed basically of valuable volumes, they are constantly augmented by purchases of new and interesting publications. These, selected by the librarian or suggested by teachers of various departments, keep our little library alive and effective.

We realize, however, that all these books really function for us because of the capable assistance and direction of the librarian. Those last-minute book reports and other class discussions are many times made possible by her sympathy and guidance.

CLASS PROPHECY

Oh, my! What a heartsick feeling I knew
When, for my assignment, this prophecy I drew.
(You, too, will probably have the same feeling, though,
When you read the poor poetry written below.)
Of course, NOW I know everyone in the class—
But, the problem is—to know them after twenty years pass.

In my dilemna I went to a gorgeous Gipsy girl,
And the things she told me left my head all a-whirl.
She, in Gipsy finery was really lovely to behold.
But, I'll admit in that mysterious setting I was far from bold.
Upon some mercenary persuasion, she gazed into that crystal ball,
And you'll be surprised—the things she told of you ALL!

Starting with Jean Abbott, said she:
"Jean's name twenty years hence starts with 'B',
She has children, home and husband—that's ample;
But—alack and alas!—she'd like to chuck it and do the "Big Apple"!
I see a sweet, gentle nurse—to many, a real god-send,
Ah, yes! you know her—bless her heart—she was once Jean Aumend.

I find an author—a writer of jokes by the peck,
He wrote them when in school, too—you guessed him—Maurice Beck.
And, oh! You should see Junior Bowerman (running the farm now),
Why, they play sweet serenades while milking a cow!
Did you know Einstein's been having help lately?
And his mathematical assistant's none other than Bernard Cately.

Rosella Chamberlin's fame now extends afar,
For she is the wife of a pro-football star.
There's a new black-face comedian who's causing a din—
You remember him—oh, yes!—Leo Chamberlin.
The president of the Umpah Ump Company has on his salary bill
The name of a now successful secretary—Ivah Churchill.

And now, Bob Clay doesn't go by his rustic name,
For it's as a machinist he has won his fame.
Our only old maid is Jeanette Connor,
Raising dogs is now her only honor.
Bill Cox made his mark as a grocery clerk,
When it comes to courtesy, he doesn't shirk.

Emma Jane Crisman's purse is swollen beyond all others,
By rewards for an invention for torturing little brothers.
A new book on how to rear your daughter and son
Has recently appeared—the author's Alice Davidson.
Ahoy! Bernard Dewey is now the successor
To Admiral G. Dewey, his predecessor.

In New York the most popular model now to be found
Is lovely Lois Ernst—her success is renowned.
Wendell Falor is one of the most successful farmers around,
Honors for the best corn and horses to him abound.
Helen Fashbaugh is giving herself a new reputation,
Right now, writing books is her dissipation.

Red Grange, DiMaggio, Joe Louis—their reputations are surpassed
By Dick Fraker's all-around athletic ability they were blast!
The next name is Mable Fuller (very appropriately),
I see she has been writing "Advice to the Lovelorn" lately.
Merwyn Griesinger is in the West on a lecture trip—
His subject is "How to Lose Enemies and Not Affect Birds"—and it's a "pip"!

Franklin Guthrie is now swinging out jazz,
He's the leader of a band that's really "raz-ma-taz"!
There's only one platinum blond remaining of old,
And that's Kathryn Harmon—a pleasure to behold!
"Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" is being remade,
My goodness—Clair Hines is Bashful (and being well paid).

Out of our class we have a factory worker—Joe Kistner,
And 'tis said to sweet nothings he's still a good list'ner.
A school teacher's salary may sometimes be "lean,"
But not that of the one I see—Ilah Klopfenstein.
There's another married woman in our midst—Norma Lindau,
'Tis said her husband before her rolling-pin doth bow!

One member of our class has chosen the ministry—
Adam Mann—is this a "mystery"?
For another Mann in our group I now answer,
Yes, Doris is now a professional dancer.
A movie idol whose glory extends afar
Is Scott McDonnall, now a handsome star.

Another member of the teaching galaxy is new,
She teaches girls how to be modest—Stella Meridew.
Bob Miley, oh—do you recall Tarzan, his nickname?
Well, as Tarzan's double he's won his fame.
Oh, my goodness—here's a boy in our class—Glenn Mock,
He's always late for work—so Boss says, "Dock!"

It seems our class developed farmers—and then some more—
Another member of the agriculture host is Marion Morr.
A temperamental actress is causing a fury!
Remember her? Of course, it's Gladys Murray.
A football coach (labeled a Rockne) to victory has led
His team for high honors—who?—Wheat Olmstead.

Luella Ruple is another successful secretary,
And I hear it whispered her boss she'll soon marry.
Burton Ruple, also in our class—to Luella, no relation—
As a business man has made his reputation.
Louise Segrist is now a band director,
Tune in on television and you can see her.

Ed Staehling is now a prof—didn't you guess?
My, oh, my! His class is always such a mess!
The most successful surgeon, without a doubt,
Of present times is Wally Stout.
George Tedrow for his state is now representative
And you should hear him—is he argumentative?

Bob Vollmer above the clouds now flies,
You should see him as he glides across the skies.
Ronald Watkins plays with the New York Symphony,
Incidentally, he buys his cuff links from Tiffany!
Virginia Wiley has followed in the footsteps of her mother,
To her we go to be lovely—even she is none other.

Paul Williams from Pettisville did come,
A farmer he vowed he would become.
Bernard Wolcott—a professional escort is his lot;
But for love, he says, "No! Never! And Not!"
Vince Zimmerman's surely made his mark;
With his gift of gab he's put Winchell in the dark.

And now I suppose 'tis time to end this nonsense,
I know this poetry surely makes no sense;
But then it wasn't my purpose to be a Muse—
But only you—when you read this—to amuse.
I'd like to say to all—I meant no offense;
And I hope that when you read this ten years hence
It will help to bring back many a school-day thought.
If such a purpose it does serve—it has done that which it ought.

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1938, knowing that our end is near, and feeling quite certain that the following persons mentioned will appreciate that we, being unusually sound of mind, bequeath:

To the freshmen we leave nothing as we have nothing of interest to children.

To the sophomores we leave two more enjoyable school years.

To the juniors we leave the right to be dignified seniors next year.

The following is privately bequeathed to those mentioned:

I, Jean Abbott, bequeath my "masculine appeal" to Martha Belle Smith.

I, Jean Aumend, leave my pleasant disposition to Verena Seiler and Chrystine Mohr.

I, Maurice Beck, give my typing skill to Raymond Johnston.

I, Junior Bowerman, desire to leave my friendly attitude and nice smile with Grace Dinius.

I, Bernard Cately, transfer my ability to drive a car (getting there and back safely) to Daryl Griesinger.

I, Rosella Chamberlin, bestow my ability to make friends on Miriam Buehrer.

I, Leo Chamberlin, have nothing to give away . . . so try to get it.

I, Ivah Churchill, hereby leave my Beau Brummel—Ray Sullivan—in care of Garnet Berkebile.

I, Robert Clay, desire to divide my intelligence between Raymond Johnston and Bob Johnson.

I, Jeanette Connor, present my title of "Ye Editor" to Dottie Emch.

I, Bill Cox, commit my speaking efficiency to Earl Whitmire.

I, Emma Jane Crisman, hand down my pessimistic outlook to Phyllis Fauble.

I, Alice Davidson, offer my hair curlers to Treva Tompkins.

I, Bernard Dewey, hereby give my dainty feet to Herbert Poorman.

I, Lois Ernst, commend my complexion to Amy Taylor.

I, Wendell Falor, transfer my "angelic" behavior to Daryl Griesinger.

I, Helen Fashbaugh, bequeath my clothes sense to Margaret Garling.

I, Dick Fraker, hand down my interest in the fairer sex to Willard Raker.

I, Mable Fuller, yield my figure to Leona Kistner.

I, Merwyn Griesinger, will my secret of how to grow tall to Charles Bowerman; for it never did me any good, and he doesn't need it.

I, Franklin Guthrie, bestow my red hair upon Aline Tedrow.

I, Kathryn Harmon, wish to leave my blond tresses with Lorene Stiriz.

I, Clair Hines, bequeath my quietness to Bob Sieren.

I. Joe Kistner, would like to transfer my sister Leona's welfare into capable hands. Applications must be in to me one week from this day.

I, Ilah Klopfenstein, will give my ability of having things always go wrong to anyone who will take it from me.

I, Norma Lindau, present my method of how to win a man (in six easy lessons) to Chrystine Mohr.

I, Adam Mann, transfer my agricultural record to Gerald Morr.

I, Doris Mann, commend my small feet to Miriam Buehrer.

I, Scott McDonnall, yield my inconspicuousness to Marguerite Savage.

I, Stella Meridew, present my shyness to Ruth Demaline.

I, Bob Miley, offer my tumbling agility to Earl Whitmire.

I, Glen Mock, leave four years of high school behind me for one eighth-grader to use.

I, Marion Morr, regret that I have but one more brother to give to D. H. S.

I, Gladys Murray, bestow another year of high school to my sister, Grace.

I, Merlin Olmstead, since there is so much of me, leave half to Ray Stevenson and half to Rollie Osterhout.

I, Luella Ruple, offer my debating technique to any one who wants it. Telephone R-284.

I, Burton Ruple, hereby publicly bequeath my giggle to———then, on second thought, I believe I'll keep it.

I, Louise Segrist, commit my proficiency in commercial subjects to Lucille Geiger.

I, Edward Staehling, present my ability in French to Wayne Caskey.

I, Wallace Stout, deliver my organizational abilities to whomever is the next president of Student Council. You'll need them!!

I, George Tedrow, would yield my business efficiency to some worthy junior, but I feel I must take it with me.

I, Bob Vollmer, leave my curly (?) locks with Elven Van Doren.

I, Ronald Watkins, commit my studiousness to Kathryn Segrist.

I, Virginia Wiley, yield my vivaciousness to Treva Nye.

I, Paul Williams, commit my ability of getting along with people to Bob Barron.

I, Bernard Wolcott, transfer my tallness to Anne Yeager.

I, Vincent Zimmerman, give my Romeo complex to Hugh Palmer.

The above signed, fully realizing that the students of D. H. S. are unable to do away with the aforementioned qualities, are fully willing that these same qualities be left behind. Therefore, in the light of the above statement, no thanks need be given them.

Signed this 31st day of May in the presence of two perfectly respectable notaries.

L. W. BURKHOLDER. R. H. HEISCHMAN.

THE JUNIOR CLASS

President . . . . . EARL WHITMIRE
Vice President . . . . . MARTHA SMITH
Secreary-Treasurer . . . . . DARYL GRIESINGER

As a rule, we usually think of the juniors as being important because next year they will be the "big chief seniors." However, they should be given credit for what they have accomplished as juniors. The members of the junior class look forward to two big events, the junior class play and the junior-senior banquet.

The junior class is a very prosperous class. They started out with a bang this year with the intention of giving the senior class a bigger and better banquet. They did a number of things to raise money. They sponsored a picture show, sold candy at basketball games, sold last year's annuals, and netted a good profit from their class play.

This year the nautical idea was carried out at the junior-senior banquet. In order to enter the beautifully decorated hall it was necessary to walk up the gang plank. Extending around the room was a rope upon which hung life savers with "S. S. Delta" printed upon them. The ceiling was decorated with triangles of different colors. Placards designated different sections of the ship.

At the back of the ship stood a lighthouse which continually flashed green and white, the high school colors.

As each guest entered, he was presented a passport which contained a picture of the individual and also other information he probably never knew about himself, such as weight, color, and nationality.

Everyone enjoyed the splendid dinner which was served by attractive waitresses dressed as deck hands. No one regretted the evening spent aboard the "S. S. Delta."

Three cheers for the juniors!

September 1937. A great day for fifty-four Delta High students! After a year's buffeting the rough storms of upper-classmen scorn, these brave spirits felt a wave of renewed strength. Now we are really initiates of that sacred body of senior high school.

Although no outstanding functions mark the sophomore year's activities, we have steadfastly held our places in classrooms and in social and athletic activities.

With the capable leadership of our officers, guided by our faithful advisers, Miss Woolery and Mr. Cartwright, we have laid a worthy foundation. So expect to hear from us in 1938 as JUNIORS!

Fifty-two was the number of freshmen who enrolled in Delta High School last September. Their sponsors, Miss Culp and Mrs. Johnson, have been busy keeping up with these lively, capricious fledglings. Yet the potentialities wrapped up in this class package makes it altogether worth while all the inconveniences to us all. Some extraordinary ability as business managers, with keen eyes on the day they are "grads," is being developed. Already, as the spring days vary from deep bright blossoms and sighs to dark winter and groans, we see plain signs of budding sophomores.

PHI BETA SIGMA

In 1935 the Delta chapter of the National Honor Society was organized. To this all who are scholastically in the upper third of their class are eligible. Selection of members is made by the faculty on the basis of leadership, scholarship, service and character. Ranking highest in distinction among all Delta High organizations, Phi Beta Sigma membership is coveted by all students.

In 1934 the Future Homemakers of America was organized in Delta High School. Since then, the club has made great progress. Composed of girls who take vocational home economics, the club has many worthy aims. Some of these are as follows: to give a home economics girl more confidence in herself and in her work; to encourage thrift both in homemaking and in her outside work; to promote scholarship among the girls; and finally to give recognition to girls who are persistent and who make an effort to progress.

Combined with the F. F. A., the club presented the play, "Fixin' Aunt Fanny." Ticket sales were increased by means of a friendly contest between the two organizations, the losing club entertaining the winners with a gay party at the Fulton Grange Hall.

Much credit for the successful activities of the club this year goes to our sponsor, Miss Culp.

The Future Farmers of America is one of our very active clubs in the school and is made so under the capable direction of Mr. Ruggles. The boys who take vocational agriculture are eligible.

George Tedrow represented the club in the District Public Speaking Contest and received second place. The club sponsored a hybrid corn display at the Farmers' Institute, entered the District Corn Husking Contest, Pest Contest, and a basketball game.

Combined with the F. H. A., the club sponsored the play, "Fixin' Aunt Fanny," which was presented with great success. Following a contest on the ticket sales for the play, the losers entertained the winners with a party at Fulton Grange Hall, which went over with a boom!

VARSITY "D"

President . . . . . WILLIAM COX
Secretary-Treasurer . . . . . EDWARD STAEHLING

The boys who have earned letters for athletic skill and sportsmanship are eligible for membership in this organization. Although the activities of the club have not been numerous this year, its members have tried to promote and sponsor various athletic affairs.

The assembly program presented by the Varsity "D" consisted of presenting the basketball letters to the varsity team, giving the championship trophy to the Junior High basketball team, and conducting a "Sports Interview." The annual "Fun Night" was again sponsored by this club on March 17.

The Commercial Club is an organization for those students who have taken or are taking commercial subjects. The club was organized to promote and to better the training and education of those persons expecting to enter the business world. One of the really live and worthy organizations of our school, the club holds the interest of its members by means of interesting discussions on subjects of importance to the business person.

This group also sponsored the Valentine High School Party.

The Girl Reserves is open to all sophomore, junior and senior girls. This year the club elected a Women's Council so that it could belong to Nationals. This council consisted of Mrs. Hutchins, Mrs. Staehling, Mrs. Burkholder and Mrs. Corbin.

At the meetings we have had outside speakers, who talked on the different vocations in which the girls were interested. The G. R., together with the Hi-Y, sponsored the Christmas High School Party.

Pot-lucks and scavenger hunts enlivened the year's program, and some of the members attended the meetings of the Inter-Club Council at Fayette and at Bryan.

The Junior Red Cross meets every Monday and Wednesday afternoon. Some of the studies of the club are as follows: individual health and personal hygiene; healthful home and community environment; the care of babies and older children; indications of sickness and care of the sick room; baths and making occupied bed; communicable diseases and medicines; and daily routine of the home attendant.

Major aims and objectives of the course are as follows: to develop and appreciate mental and physical health; to teach efficient methods of meeting the normal problems of the home; to develop some practical knowledge in the care of the sick under average home conditions; and to develop an attitude of cooperation with other health agencies for the betterment of the community.

FOOTBALL . . . SENIOR LETTER MEN

RICHARD FRAKER

Dick earned the right to be captain by his all around playing ability and his field generalship. He backed up the line and was always found near the ball-carrier. Dick played quarterback, and it was rare when he missed a block. He will be greatly missed next year.

ROBERT VOLLMER

Bob was our "fightingest" guard. He earned the most valuable player award by virtue of his fighting spirit, stick-to-itiveness, and courage. He played so gamely and clean that his work may be used as a yardstick for others. Bob's a senior, which he does not regret, but which makes the team sorry.

EDWARD STAEHLING

Hank, one of our red-headed tackles, is another senior. This means another hard replacement for the team of next year. Hank played the game in a manner worthy of comment. He will be missed when the team lines up next fall.

WILLIAM COX

Bill's the rampaging ghost, whose speed and experience combined to make him an asset to any team. To prove it, Bill has played regular for three years. He is an able pass receiver and ball carrier. His passing from the picture is an unfortunate occurrence to our team.

FRANKLIN GUTHRIE

Frank's reputation as a pile-driving backfield man was climaxed in the Wauseon game of this last year. His drives through the lines accounted for twelve of the thirteen points. This game was a fitting climax to his gridiron career. The team will really miss Frank.

MARION MORR

Marion, our other guard, is a member of that football family of Earl Morr. He didn't star or flash, but he fought all the time. He is a senior, but probably one of his brothers will fill his shoes.

JOSEPH KISTNER

Joe shifted from backfield to end, and played with all his ability to stop opposing ball carriers. His specialty was the helmet tackle. They hit hard when he got them. Who will fill his position next year? That's what the coaches are worrying about.

MERLIN OLMSTEAD

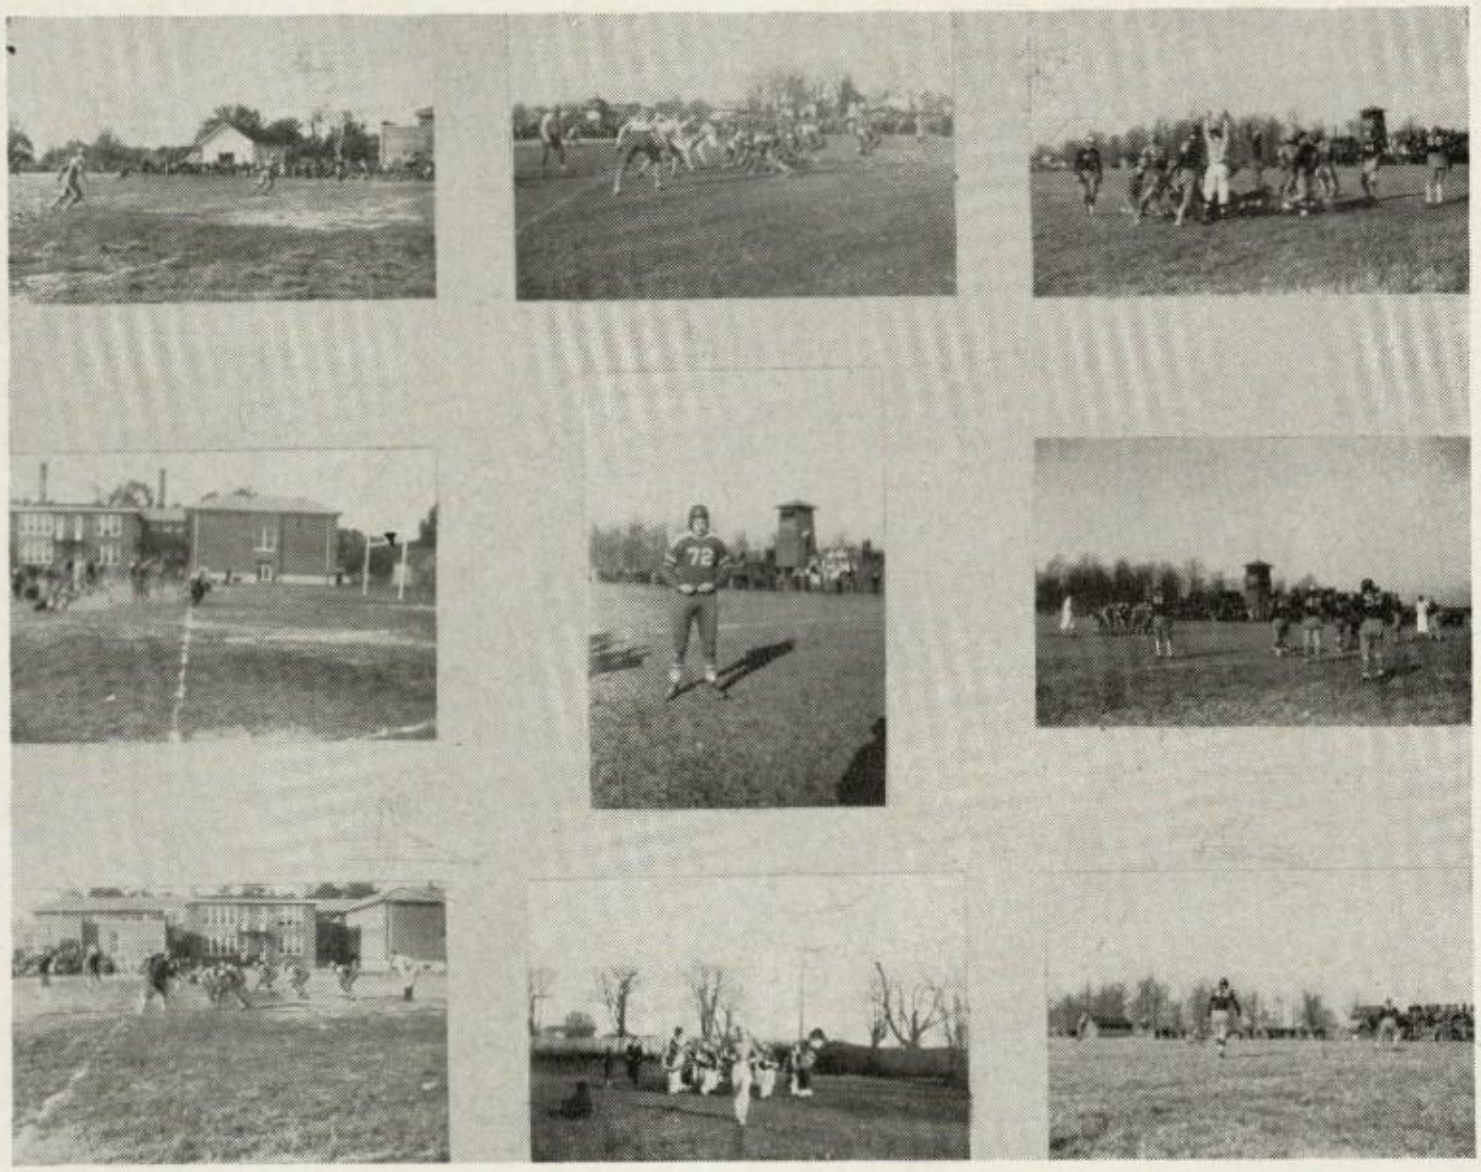
"Wheat," our big and mighty, is putting an end to a high school career which boasts of four years of varsity playing. He is the only one of the graduating class to have this distinction. They'll have to get a ten-ton truck to fill his position.

ROBERT MILEY

Our Tarzan of the gridiron. Half the time Bob was taking track, and the other, football. His position, guard, let him use his strength effectively —which he did. Bob was always ready to play and his absence will be noticed next year.

LEO CHAMBERLIN

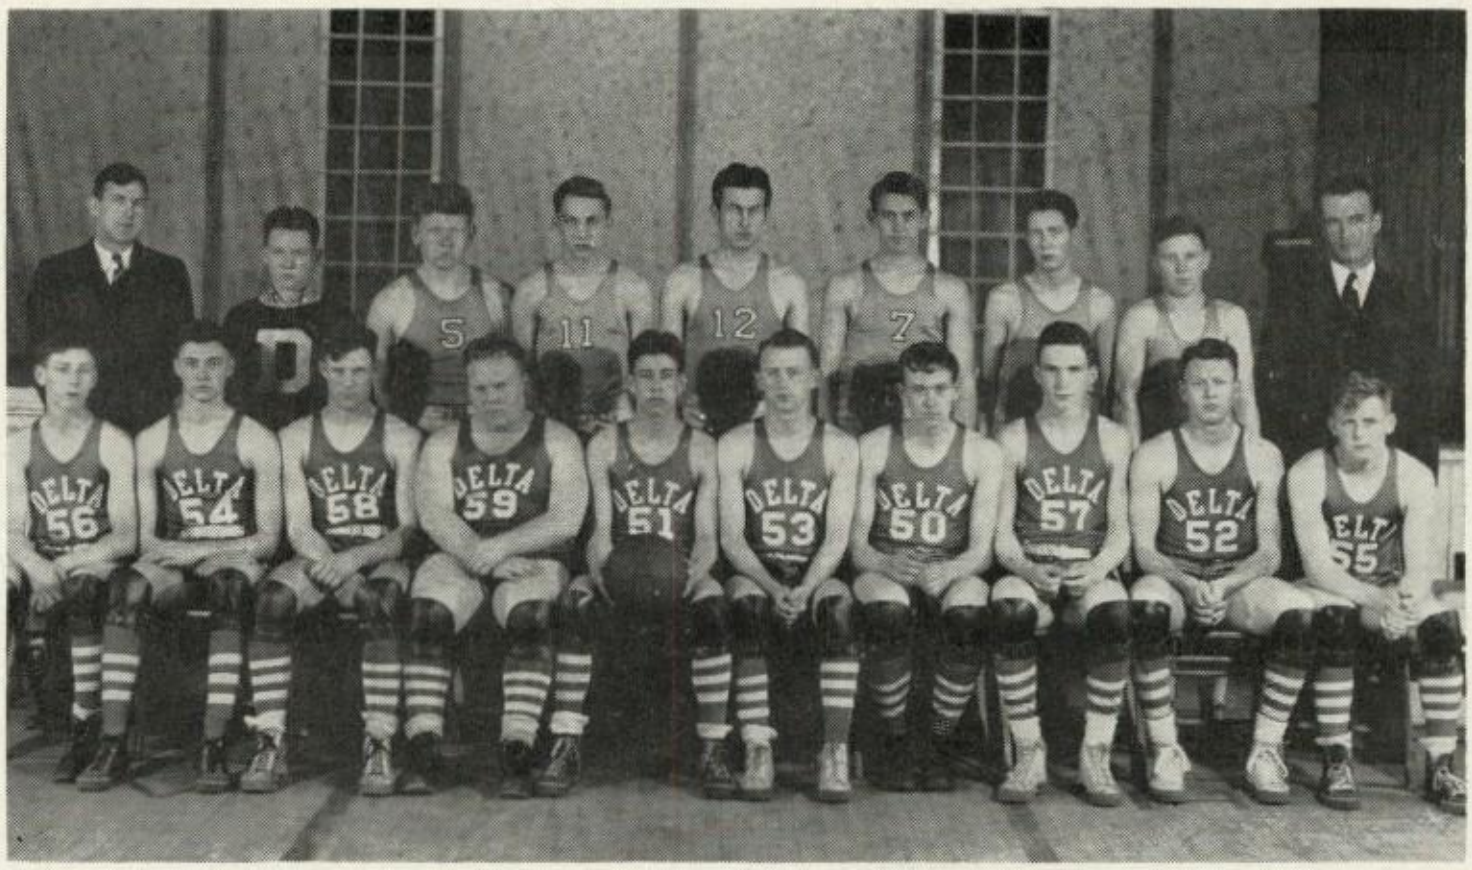
Leo won a service letter as a reward for his four years of faithful practicing. When he missed, something drastic was wrong. He never gave up and always tried his hardest. They'll miss "Old Faithful" next year.



THE THANKSGIVING GAME

DELTA 13 . . . WAUSEON 0

Topping off a season of four wins and six losses was the 13-0 victory over the Wauseon Indians. When the Panthers left the field there were injured, dying, and dead Indians strewn about in profusion. Encountering a slippery gridiron, the Panthers turned on a steaming power attack, which in the end gave them the victory. In the spotlight of the attack was Frank Guthrie, who accounted for 12 of the 13 points. Dick Fraker, who displayed unheralded speed and super-running, tallied the other lone point. The entire Green and White squad saw action.



Top Row: Mr. Cartwright, Daryl Griesinger, Raymond Johnston, Maurice Beck, Warren Buchanan, Robert Sieren, Robert Churchill, Merwyn Griesinger, Mr. Heischman.

JUNIOR HIGH BASKETBALL

Delta possesses the best junior high school basketball team in Fulton county. That fact was definitely established Saturday night, February 26, when Coach R. D. Kibele and his young Panthers smothered Fayette to win the county championship with a convincing 34-to-18 score.

The game was played in Wauseon auditorium in conjunction with the county's class B basketball tourney. Delta had previously won the east-end title, while Fayette was winning the western division pennant. In every play-off game the Deltans virtually doubled their opponent's score.

From the start the Delta basketeers performed like veterans, quickly throwing the Fayette lads into rout and retreat. The Kibele-coached lads brought home an attractive trophy, emblematic of the county title.

FUN NIGHT

For three years the "Varsity D" has sponsored a Fun Night at the Community Hall. This year's event, which was held on Thursday evening, March 17, was "bigger and better than ever." The scheduled basketball game between the North Side Merchants and the South Side Merchants has proved itself to be an annual crowd-drawing attraction. This year the South Side won by a score of 21-17. Two basketball games, the Varsity vs. the Alumni and the juniors vs. the seniors, were also included in the evening's program. Delta merchants contributed food and other articles which were given away. A capacity crowd attended with many remarking upon the success of the affair. The proceeds of Fun Night are placed in the athletic fund to be used for uniforms and equipment.

CHAPEL PROGRAMS

1. WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 24

The freshman class had charge of the first chapel service. They presented a play titled "The Three Thanksgivings."

2. WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 1

The sophomores gave a skit on vocations. Various professions and occupations were discussed to help the students choose vocations.

3. WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 8

The Commercial Club presented a novel program which they called "Vox Pop." Several members of the club were interviewed and asked various types of questions. They also gave a short skit.

4. WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 15

Members of the speech class debated on the topic, "Resolved: that the several states should adopt a unicameral system of legislation."

5. THURSDAY, DECEMBER 23

The Senior Girls' Glee Club presented a one-act play entitled "Christmas at 500 Green Street." Members of the club sang Christmas carols.

6. WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 19

Members of the faculty gave talks on the Northwest Territory in observance of the national celebration of two of our nation's great historic events, the passage of the Ordinance of 1787 and the establishment of civil government in the Northwest Territory.

7. WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 2

The boys in the Hi-Y club, in observance of Temperance Week, led a discussion of the liquor question.

8. WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 9

The eighth grade divided itself into two groups and discussed the question: "Which had the greater hardships to overcome, Washington or Lincoln?"

9. WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 23

Various members of the American government class discussed current problems, both foreign and American.

10. WEDNESDAY, MARCH 2

The student body enjoyed talking pictures of "Beautiful Ohio." The pictures were divided into three groups: places of interest throughout the State; industrial machines; and last, an airplane view of the great cities.

11. WEDNESDAY, MARCH 16

The Varsity D conducted sidewalk interviews. All of the questions were taken from world sports.

12. WEDNESDAY, MARCH 23

The band, presented by Mr. Gottschalk, presented an all-musical program. They played five selections, including marches and overtures.

13. WEDNESDAY, MARCH 30

The F. F. A. had charge of the chapel program. A motion picture, "The Romance of the Reaper," was shown to the student body.

14. WEDNESDAY, APRIL 6

Dr. Guy Detrick addressed the assembly. He told a series of short stories which were closely connected to form the "Story of Man As He Came Down Through the Ages." He used a painted canvas, illustrating his talk.

SENIOR SCHOLARSHIP RETURNS

The performance of our seniors who participated in the State Scholarship tests for high school seniors is easily the outstanding scholastic achievement of Delta High School students in recent years. First, second, twelfth, thirteenth, fourteenth and fifteenth places among the seniors of Fulton County is a record of which we are proud. Robert Clay captured first rank with a score of 303. Ronald Watkins placed second, scoring 300. Jeanette Connor, Edward Staehling, Jean Aumend, and Wallace Stout scored 249, 248, 246 and 245, respectively. Of the seventeen students who scored in the upper twenty-five per cent of the county, six were Delta seniors.

(Edward Staehling, not pictured in the group, was eligible to take the tests and placed in the upper twenty-five per cent of the county).

BAND

Early in the school year of 1937-1938 the band suffered a deep loss. Mr. E. A. Sutermeister, popular and efficient baton wielder, left our school to accept a splendid position elsewhere. While we rejoiced in the good luck of "Sutie," it took some time for us to recover from the shock. After the storm clouds passed, we began to get our musical bearings under our new leader, Mr. Gottschalk.

Under his guidance, the Delta High School Band has developed much skill this year. This organization provided a great deal of pep and enthusiasm at the home football games and also at several basketball games.

This year, for the first time, our band participated in the district band contest at Bluffton. Even though we did not come home with the honors, all the members learned a lot from this experience whereby they hope to improve their playing ability.

Among other important events of the school year, the band sponsored a solo contest on January 23, played at the spring meeting of the County Teachers' Association, and presented a program to the assembly March 23. Also during the year, the Better Band Club was organized by the parents of the band members to further the interests and to sponsor band activities.

ORCHESTRA

Under the capable direction of Miss Williams, the orchestra made much progress this year, not only in gaining new members, but also in playing a more difficult type of music. The group made appearances at several community affairs, including the Delta Farmers' Institute and Brailey Farmers' Institute. "Deep Purple," a modern selection by Peter De Rose, was presented at the Musical Revue. Several numbers were also played at Commencement by the orchestra.

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

President	LEO CHAMBERLIN
Vice President	VINCENT ZIMMERMAN
Secretary-Treasurer	ROBERT VOLLMER

Although this organization has not made any public appearances this year, the members, nevertheless, have worked hard to develop tone, quality, and interpretations. Many new members were added this year and much will be expected from the club in the future. Together with the Girls' Glee Club, a school party was sponsored in the spring.

JUNIOR-SENIOR GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

President . . . . . HELEN FASHBAUGH
Vice President . . . . . LORENE STIRIZ
Secretary-Treasurer . . . . . LOUISE SEGRIST

This year the Girls' Glee Club was divided into two sections, the Freshman-Sophomore and the Junior-Senior Clubs. Much more was expected from the latter, because the girls had experienced the work of the club from former years. This club endeavored to accomplish more because of the rivalry between it and the Freshman-Sophomore group.

The biggest event of the year was our participation in the district contest at Ada on March 25. We were chosen as alternates to the state contest. All of the girls learned much from this experience and will, no doubt, profit from it in the future. The numbers sung at the contest were "Art Thou Sleeping," by Jensen, and "Beauteous Morn," by German.

The club also sang at the Delta Farmers' Institute, the Brailey Farmers' Institute, the Musical Revue and the spring meeting of the Fulton County Teachers' Association.

Even though this club made only one public appearance this year, its members accomplished much in developing the fundamental things that constitute a good glee club. The work of this year will prove very beneficial to the girls when they join the Junior-Senior Club.

At the Musical Revue the club presented a chorus number, "Chinese Lullaby."

On December 17, 1937, the Junior High presented the operetta, "Bringing Up Santa," under the direction of Miss Williams.

The theme of the play centers around the investigation of Dame Fashion and her assistant, William Fitzgerald Van Husen, to modernize Santa and his environment. The reason for this desire of Dame Fashion is that she is afraid that the world will become dissatisfied because Santa Claus and his wife remain so old-fashioned.

DEBATE TEAM

This year, for the first time in a number of years, Delta High School was fortunate in having a public speaking course in its curriculum. From this class, Luella Ruple and Jeanette Connor were chosen to represent our school in the public speaking and debate contest which was held at Clay High School on January 22. The subject for contest debate was: "Resolved that the several states should adopt a unicameral system of legislature." In the result of this tournament, Lake and Delta tied for first place. On February 3, the Delta team went to Lake High School to determine the winner. However, our debaters lost to Lake in the finals. Much credit should be given to Mrs. Johnson for her splendid instructions in coaching the team.

Top Row: Mr. Ruggles, Kathryn Harmon, Leo Chamberlin, Verena Seiler, Junior Bowerman, Lorene Stiriz, Fermin Dohm, Miss Culp.

F. H. A. AND F. F. A. PLAY

These members of the F. F. A. and F. H. A. clubs presented the three-act farce, "Fixin' Aunt Fanny," on Friday night, December 3. The story concerns a nervous bridegroom-to-be and his experiences during the few hours preceding his wedding. Some of the exciting incidents of the story include the demand by the Collection Agency for the unpaid ring, the "borrowing" of Aunt Fanny's silver punch bowl to use as security to get the ring back, and the early arrival of Aunt Fanny, herself. Finally, by confessions and explanations, everything is straightened out and a happy ending closes the scenes of a very entertaining and well-done performance.

Standing: Robert Sieren, Doretta Emch, Amy Taylor, Ray Stevenson, Miss Woolery.
Seated: Leona Kistner, Earl Whitmire, Lucille Geiger, Hugh Palmer.

JUNIOR PLAY

On April 8, the junior class presented "Through the Keyhole," a spicy comedy centering about the self-reliant actions of Grandma Tierney, who believed that one could learn more from peeping through a keyhole than from going to college. By means of spying she was able to learn of the fortune-hunting friends of her grandson and granddaughter, thus avoiding two most unpleasant marriages, and at the same time bringing about desirable love affairs between the household maid and her grandson, and between the butler and her granddaughter.

The entire play was a series of brisk repartees and amusing events. It was enjoyed immensely by all.

Back Row: Jean Abbott, Edward Staehling, Franklin Guthrie, Wallace Stout, Emma Jane Crisman. Second Row: Jeanette Connor, Robert Vollmer, Lois Ernst, Jean Aumend, Doris Mann, George Tedrow. Front Row: Merwyn Griesinger, Vincent Zimmerman.

SENIOR PLAY

On Thursday evening, May 26, the senior class presented "Spring Fever," a farce woven around college graduation.

The play concerns a lively group that frequents Mrs. Spangler's rooming house at Brookfield College. She says, "I never know if they're in or out. They come and go so fast you couldn't keep track of them if you were a paid spy." That's more than true on the day before Commencement; for in addition to her regular college-boy roomers, their girls keep popping in and out, a few parents and an aunt show up, and the "Prexy" and Professor Bean find occasion to call several times. And things happen! Spring fever has hit Brookfield! But why tell more? It's all fast and furious and funny, and it all ends entirely to everybody's satisfaction.

HIGH SCHOOL PARTIES

FIRST HIGH SCHOOL PARTY—GREEN AND WHITE HOP

On November 4, 1937, Student Council sponsored the Green and White Hop, first high school party of the year. The evening was spent in dancing, with time out for a bathing beauty contest. The contestants comprised the new members of Hi-Y. Kenneth Eicher and Richard Falor were adjudged the beauty winners. Another attraction of the evening was a pantomime, presented by the Freshman Class. The efforts of "our youngest" impressed everyone. The rest of the evening was spent in dancing to the enchanting swing of the Twilight Cavaliers. Culmination of the evening was the grand march and processional to the basement where inviting refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

SECOND HIGH SCHOOL PARTY—CHRISTMAS PARTY

On the evening of December 23, 1937, the Girl Reserves and the Hi-Y clubs sponsored a Christmas party in Community Hall. As the guests entered the hall, they were amazed to see the familiar room transformed into a beautifully decorated one. Blue and silver were the predominating colors, with branches of evergreen placed about the stage and balcony. The well-known music of the Twilight Cavaliers entertained for the dancing. All too soon came the grand march when the couples proceeded to the dining room. Refreshments, consisting of "hot dogs" and hot chocolate or coffee, renewed the energy of the tired dancers. At twelve-thirty a tired but happy crowd of students were ready to call an end to a delightful evening.

THIRD HIGH SCHOOL PARTY—ST. VALENTINE'S PARTY

On Saturday, February 5, 1938, when the students entered Community Hall, they found the auditorium cleverly adorned with red hearts and other famous Valentine decorations. The evening was spent in dancing to the strains of music by the Swingaliers. There were ping-pong, bingo, and cards for those who did not care to dance. When the grand march was announced, the couples went down for refreshments which proved to be delicious ice cream, cake and heart-shaped candies. The gala event was well planned and the Commercial Club deserves much praise for its fine presentation.

FOURTH HIGH SCHOOL PARTY—"SPRING SHUFFLE"

The music clubs of Delta High sponsored a "Spring Shuffle" on Friday evening, April 22, in Community Hall. Blue and silver were predominant colors, with silver musical emblems placed on a blue background. A new idea was used for serving refreshments. Several girls gave the guests glasses of punch and small wafers during the course of the evening. The dance music was furnished by an orthophonic. Everyone enjoyed himself and was disappointed when the time came to leave for home.

GREEN AND WHITE STAFF

At the beginning of this school year the name of the paper was changed from "Gold and White" to "Green and White" to correspond with the new school colors.

The editor, with a very capable staff, was able to publish one of the finest papers—both in appearance and in content—that D. H. S. has ever known. Much credit is due the staff for the regularity with which the paper has been issued—a great improvement over other years.

The staff for the year was:

Editor-in-Chief	JEANETTE CONNOR
Associate Editor	DOTTIE EMCH
Business Manager	VINCENT ZIMMERMAN
Feature Editor	HELEN FASHBAUGH
News Editor	LOUISE SEGRIST
Sports Editor	BILL COX
Humor Editor	MAURICE BECK
Exchange Editor	JEAN AUMEND
Typists	LUELLA RUPLE, JEAN ABBOTT
Sponsor	MISS WOOLERY

Judging from her work this year, we confidently forecast that Dottie Emch will be a very capable editor to head next year's staff.

The staff is grateful for the helpful advice of its sponsor, Miss Woolery.

PANTHER STAFF

JOKES

Robert: (Hands over her eyes) "If you can't guess who this is in three guesses, I'm going to kiss you."

Emma Jane: "Jack Frost, Davy Jones, Santa Claus."

Bill: "I'm the fastest man in the world. When I run up steps it sounds like a machine gun."

Vince: "That's nothing. One night I ran into the house, slammed the door behind me, ran upstairs, undressed, turned off the electric light switch, was in bed before the light went out, and then I heard the front door bang shut."

He was a very bashful chap,
She'll go with him no more;
For when he paddled their canoe,
He only hugged the shore.

Mr. Cately: "Had you the car out last night, son?"

Bernard: "Yes, dad, I took some of the boys for a run."

Mr. Cately: "Well, tell the boys I found one of their little lace handkerchiefs."

Jack and Jill went up the hill,
At 60 miles or better;
  A cop unkind
  Was right behind—
They're seeking bail by letter.

Wheat: "Pop, how big is your town?"

Pop: "Let me see; well, it's about the size of New York but it isn't built up yet."

E. Soule: "I think I'll get Indian underwear next winter."

J. Lehman: "What kind is that?"

E. Soule: "Woolen—the kind that creeps up on you."

A mule has two legs on behind,
  And two he has before,
You stand behind before you find
  What the two behind be for.

Leon Stevenson: "My brother doesn't drink, smoke or swear."

Daryl Griesinger: "Does he make his own dresses too?"

SAVED

There he was, battling against the waves. "Just a mile more," he thought, "and I'll make the shore." His strokes were getting weaker. He could hardly lift an arm. The beach was only a few yards away. His last efforts were too much. He began to grow dizzy. Then his head began to swim and carried him to the shore.

Teacher: "Billy, do two rights make a wrong?"
Billy: "Yes, ma'am, when they're shoes."
